

2027 Beneficiary Application

The Voila Foundation unites people, partners, and purpose to raise awareness and funds for trusted charities serving North Metro Atlanta. Through creativity, celebration, and collaboration, we are Growing Good Together and building a stronger, more generous community.

We will gladly accept your application to be considered as a beneficiary for one of our upcoming events. Prior to completing the application please make sure you meet the following basic criteria:

- 501(c)(3) status and a demonstrated service impact within one or more Metro Atlanta counties: Fulton, Cobb, DeKalb, Forsyth, Gwinnett, or Cherokee.
- Use of funds: Donations must directly support services provided within these counties. Funds may not be used for capital improvements, general salaries, or bonuses.
- Commitment to partnership: Beneficiaries must have adequate staff or volunteer support to actively participate in our event from contract signing through check distribution. Each organization must also designate at least two decision-making representatives to attend every monthly committee meeting.

Completed applications and the accompanying documentation are due by September 14, 2026. If you need assistance or have questions, please email thevoilafoundation@gmail.com

PLEASE NOTE: By submitting this application and providing the documents requested, you are indicating the legal right to represent this organization.
